

AWARDEE REPORT FORM

UNIVERSITY University College Dublin (UCD) NAME OF AWARD Departmental Seminar Grant PURPOSE OF AWARD To host an event. Anatomy within the current medical curriculum: Challenges & opportunities REPORT: What were your anticipated benefits? Statering of anatomists from all the Irish medical schools - UCD (University College Dublin), TCD (Trinity College Dublin), RCSI (Royal College of The Surgeons, Ireland), UL (University of Limerick), UCC (University College Cock). Plenty of collaboration and networking happened. Excellent space for the young demonstrators to interact, network and communicate. The keynote talk by Prof. Ceri Davies (Imperial College London, UK) was an asset. COMMENTS: Describe your experience at the conference / lab visit / course / seminar. The motive behind organizing the seminar was to discuss the challenges and opportunities in the current landscape of anatomy teaching. The seminar was organized in the UCD School of Veterinary Medicine on the afternoon of the 7 th Puscember 2018. The agend of the event was as follows: 1:30-2100 pm: Gureits sarrie + tea/coffee 2:100-3:00 pm: Coure track with tea/coffee 3:30-3:10 pm: Comfort break with tea/coffee 3:3:0-3:10 pm: Comfort break vith Prof. Ceri Davies (Fashions in Anatomy education: how long or bunker to teach to see thing come full circle?) 4:10-4:20 pm: Comp discussion in the room VET115 of the UCD School of Veterinary Medicine 5:00 pm: Concluding remarks & social gathering for colleagues who can stay.	NAME	Sourav Bhattacharjee
PURPOSE OF AWARD To host an event: Anatomy within the current medical curriculum: Challenges & opportunities REPORT: What were your anticipated benefits? ✓ Gathering of anatomists from all the Irish medical schools - UCD (University College Dublin), TCD (Trinity College Ork). ✓ Plenty of collaboration and networking happened. ✓ Excellent space for the young demonstrators to interact, network and communicate. ✓ The keynote talk by Prof. Ceri Davies (Imperial College London, UK) was an asset. COMMENTS: Describe your experience at the conference / lab visit / course / seminar. The motive behind organizing the seminar was to discuss the challenges and opportunities in the current landscape of anatomy teaching. The seminar was organized in the UCD School of Veterinary Medicine on the afternoon of the 7 th December 2018. The agenda of the event was as follows: 1:30-3:10 pm: Guests arrive + tea/coffee ✓ 2:00-3:00 pm: Tour of the school including anatomy dissection hall ✓ 3:10-4:10 pm: Group discussion in the room VET115 of the UCD School of Veterinary Medicine ✓ 4:10-4:20 pm: Comp discussion in the room VET115 of the UCD School of Veterinary Medicine ✓ 3:10-4:10 pm: Group discussion in the room VET115 of the UCD School of Veterinary Medicine ✓ 4:10-4:20 pm: Comp discussion in the room VET115 of the UCD School of Veterinary Medicine ✓ <td>UNIVERSITY</td> <td colspan="3">University College Dublin (UCD)</td>	UNIVERSITY	University College Dublin (UCD)
To host an event: Anatomy within the current medical curriculum: Challenges & opportunities REPORT: What were your anticipated benefits? ✓ Gathering of anatomists from all the Irish medical schools - UCD (University College Dublin), TCD (Trinity College Dublin), RCSI (Royal College of The Surgeons, Ireland), UL (University of Limerick), UCC (University College Cork). ✓ Plenty of collaboration and networking happened. Excellent space for the young demonstrators to interact, network and communicate. ✓ The keynote talk by Prof. Ceri Davies (Imperial College London, UK) was an asset. COMMENTS: Describe your experience at the conference / lab visit / course / seminar. The motive behind organizing the seminar was to discuss the challenges and opportunities in the current landscape of anatomy teaching. The seminar was organized in the UCD School of Veterinary Medicine on the afternoon of the 7 th December 2018. The agenda of the event was as follows: ✓ 1:30-2:00 pm: Guor of the school including anatomy dissection hall ✓ 3:100-4:10 pm: Group discussion in the room VET115 of the UCD School of Veterinary Medicine ✓ 4:20-5:00 pm: Keynote talk by Prof. Ceri Davies (Fashions in Anatomy education: how long do you have to teach to see things come full circle?) > 5:00 pm: Concluding remarks & social gathering for colleagues who can stay. EFPORT: In relation to skills, what were the most important things you gained? (does not apply to equipment grant) How do you think you will put this learning experience into practice in the future? ✓ A critical mass from the	NAME OF AWARD	Departmental Seminar Grant
REPORT: What were your anticipated benefits? ✓ Gathering of anatomists from all the Irish medical schools - UCD (University College Dublin), TCD (Trinity College Dublin), RCSI (Royal College of The Surgeons, Ireland), UL (University of Limerick), UCC (University College Cork). ✓ Plenty of collaboration and networking happened. ✓ Excellent space for the young demonstrators to interact, network and communicate. ✓ The keynote talk by Prof. Ceri Davies (Imperial College London, UK) was an asset. COMMENTS: Describe your experience at the conference / lab visit / course / seminar. The motive behind organizing the seminar was to discuss the challenges and opportunities in the current landscape of anatomy teaching. The seminar was organized in the UCD School of Veterinary Medicine on the afternoon of the 7 th December 2018. The agenda of the event was as follows: ✓ 13:0-2:00 pm: Guests arrive + tea/coffee ✓ 3:00-3:10 pm: Comfort break with tea/coffee ✓ 3:10-4:10 pm: Group discussion in the room VET115 of the UCD School of Veterinary Medicine ✓ 4:10-4:20 pm: Keynote talk by Prof. Ceri Davies (Fashions in Anatomy education: how long do you have to teach to see things come full circle?) ✓ 5:00 pm: Concluding remarks & social gathering for colleagues who can stay. VEPORT: In relation to skills, what were the most important things you gained? (does not apply to equipment grant) How do you think you will put this learning experience into practice in the future? ✓ A critical mass from the anatomists working in the various Irish
 Gathering of anatomists from all the Irish medical schools - UCD (University College Dublin), TCD (Trinity College Dublin), RCSI (Royal College of The Surgeons, Ireland), UL (University of Limerick), UCC (University College Cork). Plenty of collaboration and networking happened. Excellent space for the young demonstrators to interact, network and communicate. The keynote talk by Prof. Cerl Davies (Imperial College London, UK) was an asset. COMMENTS: Describe your experience at the conference / lab visit / course / seminar. The motive behind organizing the seminar was to discuss the challenges and opportunities in the current landscape of anatomy teaching. The seminar was organized in the UCD School of Veterinary Medicine on the afternoon of the 7th December 2018. The agenda of the event was as follows: 1:30-2:00 pm: Guests arrive + tea/coffee 2:00-3:00 pm: Tour of the school including anatomy dissection hall 3:00-3:10 pm: Gornoft break with tea/coffee 4:10-4:20 pm: Gornoft break with tea/coffee 4:20-5:00 pm: Keynote talk by Prof. Ceri Davies (Fashions in Anatomy education: how long do you have to teach to see things come full circle?) 5:00 pm: Concluding remarks & social gathering for colleagues who can stay. REPORT: In relation to skills, what were the most important things you gained? (does not apply to equipment grant) How do you think you will put this learning experience into practice in the future? A critical mass from the anatomists working in the various Irish medical schools is emerging. Planning for various further collaborative projects including applying for national and international funding instruments as an integrated unit are going on. We plan to meet up every year and discuss our issues. Most importantly, the event gave uss an opportunity to reach out to all our fello	To host an event: Anatomy within the current medical curriculum: Challenges & opportunities
 Dublin), RCSI (Royal College of The Surgeons, Ireland), UL (University of Limerick), UCC (University College Cork). Plenty of collaboration and networking happened. Excellent space for the young demonstrators to interact, network and communicate. The keynote talk by Prof. Ceri Davies (Imperial College London, UK) was an asset. COMMENTS: Describe your experience at the conference / lab visit / course / seminar. The motive behind organizing the seminar was to discuss the challenges and opportunities in the current landscape of anatomy teaching. The seminar was organized in the UCD School of Veterinary Medicine on the afternoon of the 7th December 2018. The agenda of the event was as follows: 1:30-2:00 pm: Guests arrive + tea/coffee 2:00-3:00 pm: Cour of the school including anatomy dissection hall 3:00-3:10 pm: Comfort break with tea/coffee 4:10-4:20 pm: Comfort break with tea/coffee 4:10-4:20 pm: Comfort break + tea/coffee 4:10-4:20 pm: Confort break + tea/coffee 4:10-4:20 pm: Confort break + tea/coffee 4:20-5:00 pm: Concluding remarks & social gathering for colleagues who can stay. S:00 pm: Concluding remarks & social gathering for colleagues who can stay. S:00 pm: Concluding remarks & social gathering for colleagues who can stay. S:00 pm: Concluding remarks & social gathering for colleagues who can stay. S:00 pm: Concluding remarks & social gathering for colleagues who can stay. S:00 pm: Concluding remarks & social gathering the protect in the future? A critical mass from the anatomists working in the various Irish medical schools is emerging. Planning for various further collaborative projects including applying for national and international funding instruments as an integrated unit are going on. We plan to meet up every year and discuss our issues. Most importantly, the event gave us an opportunity t	REPORT: What were your anticipated benefits?
 The motive behind organizing the seminar was to discuss the challenges and opportunities in the current landscape of anatomy teaching. The seminar was organized in the UCD School of Veterinary Medicine on the afternoon of the 7th December 2018. The agenda of the event was as follows: 1:30-2:00 pm: Guests arrive + tea/coffee 2:00-3:00 pm: Tour of the school including anatomy dissection hall 3:00-3:10 pm: Group discussion in the room VET115 of the UCD School of Veterinary Medicine 4:10-4:20 pm: Comfort break with tea/coffee 4:20-5:00 pm: Keynote talk by Prof. Ceri Davies (Fashions in Anatomy education: how long do you have to teach to see things come full circle?) 5:00 pm: Concluding remarks & social gathering for colleagues who can stay. 5:00 pm: Concluding remarks & social gathering for colleagues who can stay. 5:00 pm: Concluding remarks & social gathering for colleagues who can stay. FEPORT: In relation to skills, what were the most important things you gained? (does not apply to equipment grant) How do you think you will put this learning experience into practice in the future? A critical mass from the anatomists working in the various Irish medical schools is emerging. Planning for various further collaborative projects including applying for national and international funding instruments as an integrated unit are going on. We plan to meet up every year and discuss our issues. Most importantly, the event gave us an opportunity to reach out to all our fellow anatomy teaching colleagues. 	 Dublin), RCSI (Royal College of The Surgeons, Ireland), UL (University of Limerick), UCC (University College Cork). ✓ Plenty of collaboration and networking happened. ✓ Excellent space for the young demonstrators to interact, network and communicate.
 anatomy teaching. The seminar was organized in the UCD School of Veterinary Medicine on the afternoon of the 7th December 2018. The agenda of the event was as follows: 1:30-2:00 pm: Guests arrive + tea/coffee 2:00-3:00 pm: Tour of the school including anatomy dissection hall 3:00-3:10 pm: Comfort break with tea/coffee 3:10-4:10 pm: Group discussion in the room VET115 of the UCD School of Veterinary Medicine 4:10-4:20 pm: Comfort break + tea/coffee 4:20-5:00 pm: Keynote talk by Prof. Ceri Davies (Fashions in Anatomy education: how long do you have to teach to see things come full circle?) 5:00 pm: Concluding remarks & social gathering for colleagues who can stay. EVENT: In relation to skills, what were the most important things you gained? (does not apply to equipment grant) How do you think you will put this learning experience into practice in the future? A critical mass from the anatomists working in the various Irish medical schools is emerging. Planning for various further collaborative projects including applying for national and international funding instruments as an integrated unit are going on. We plan to meet up every year and discuss our issues. Most importantly, the event gave us an opportunity to reach out to all our fellow anatomy teaching colleagues. 	COMMENTS: Describe your experience at the conference / lab visit / course / seminar.
 2:00-3:00 pm: Tour of the school including anatomy dissection hall 3:00-3:10 pm: Comfort break with tea/coffee 3:10-4:10 pm: Group discussion in the room VET115 of the UCD School of Veterinary Medicine 4:10-4:20 pm: Comfort break + tea/coffee 4:20-5:00 pm: Keynote talk by Prof. Ceri Davies (Fashions in Anatomy education: how long do you have to teach to see things come full circle?) 5:00 pm: Concluding remarks & social gathering for colleagues who can stay. 5:00 pm: Concluding remarks & social gathering for colleagues who can stay. REPORT: In relation to skills, what were the most important things you gained? (does not apply to equipment grant) How do you think you will put this learning experience into practice in the future? A critical mass from the anatomists working in the various Irish medical schools is emerging. Planning for various further collaborative projects including applying for national and international funding instruments as an integrated unit are going on. We plan to meet up every year and discuss our issues. Most importantly, the event gave us an opportunity to reach out to all our fellow anatomy teaching colleagues. 	anatomy teaching. The seminar was organized in the UCD School of Veterinary Medicine on the afternoon of the 7 th
 5:00 pm: Concluding remarks & social gathering for colleagues who can stay. Image: Social gathering for colleagues who can stay. REPORT: In relation to skills, what were the most important things you gained? (does not apply to equipment grant) How do you think you will put this learning experience into practice in the future? A critical mass from the anatomists working in the various Irish medical schools is emerging. Planning for various further collaborative projects including applying for national and international funding instruments as an integrated unit are going on. We plan to meet up every year and discuss our issues. Most importantly, the event gave us an opportunity to reach out to all our fellow anatomy teaching colleagues. 	 ✓ 2:00-3:00 pm: Tour of the school including anatomy dissection hall ✓ 3:00-3:10 pm: Comfort break with tea/coffee ✓ 3:10-4:10 pm: Group discussion in the room VET115 of the UCD School of Veterinary Medicine ✓ 4:10-4:20 pm: Comfort break + tea/coffee ✓ 4:20-5:00 pm: Keynote talk by Prof. Ceri Davies (Fashions in Anatomy education: how long do you have to teach
 REPORT: In relation to skills, what were the most important things you gained? (does not apply to equipment grant) How do you think you will put this learning experience into practice in the future? A critical mass from the anatomists working in the various Irish medical schools is emerging. Planning for various further collaborative projects including applying for national and international funding instruments as an integrated unit are going on. We plan to meet up every year and discuss our issues. Most importantly, the event gave us an opportunity to reach out to all our fellow anatomy teaching colleagues.
 How do you think you will put this learning experience into practice in the future? ✓ A critical mass from the anatomists working in the various Irish medical schools is emerging. ✓ Planning for various further collaborative projects including applying for national and international funding instruments as an integrated unit are going on. ✓ We plan to meet up every year and discuss our issues. ✓ Most importantly, the event gave us an opportunity to reach out to all our fellow anatomy teaching colleagues.
 A critical mass from the anatomists working in the various Irish medical schools is emerging. Planning for various further collaborative projects including applying for national and international funding instruments as an integrated unit are going on. We plan to meet up every year and discuss our issues. Most importantly, the event gave us an opportunity to reach out to all our fellow anatomy teaching colleagues.
 Planning for various further collaborative projects including applying for national and international funding instruments as an integrated unit are going on. We plan to meet up every year and discuss our issues. Most importantly, the event gave us an opportunity to reach out to all our fellow anatomy teaching colleagues.
✓ Most importantly, the event gave us an opportunity to reach out to all our fellow anatomy teaching colleagues.	 Planning for various further collaborative projects including applying for national and international funding instruments as an integrated unit are going on.
	•		atomy tea	aching colleagues.

File: AS-Award-Report-Form-BLANKCO-SEAL-date110216